INSTRUCTIONAL ASSISTANT: Roderick Yu (roderickyu@ust.hk)

OFFICE: CYT G/F Classroom 005

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

In this course students will learn to love everything that is special about classical music, from the full impressive power of a concert orchestra to the intimate and mysterious solo piano. This course is designed to introduce students to the wide variety of styles and sounds of Western classical music. The listening and analytical skills demonstrated will bring about a deeper understanding of music as an art form. Prior musical training is NOT required.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Students will:

1. Through a historical survey, develop a deeper appreciation of classical music
2. Through an analysis of artistic trends, describe the cultural and historical development of classical music
3. Through analysis of specific works, understand music theory fundamentals
4. Through the concert report requirement, critique live music performances
5. Apply analytical skills from this course to other disciplines

LECTURE NOTES, FILES, AND LISTENING ASSIGNMENTS:

Materials will be available on Canvas and other electronic resources. Textbook is available for online purchase.

The content of each lecture will be included on CANVAS (<http://canvas.ust.hk/>). The lecture note files will include hyperlinks to audio and video recordings of works covered using the following services:

Naxos Music Library

Naxos Video Library

Spotify & YouTube

services are accessible by all HKUST students WITHOUT A FEE

EXAMS:

NO make-up exam or test will be offered without proof of extenuating circumstances. If you miss the midterm, the total score will be transferred to the final exam (i.e. the weight of final exam will become 50%).

Midterm date: October 29 DURING CLASS (date subject to change).

ONLINE QUIZZES:

These 10 quizzes are designed to help you prepare for the exams. They are based on the lecture sides, the operas, and the reading. Consult the calendar on Canvas for the dates. Five quizzes will be conducted during class and five will be given as homework.

VIDEO ESSAY:

Students will be required to create a video essay about a piece of music and its relevant composer. The video should be based on a live recording. The essay should successfully demonstrate use of course concepts to discuss works, composers, and/or performers presented.

ATTENDANCE:

Attendance will be taken throughout the twelve weeks after the add-drop period. You may miss three classes without penalty, but starting from your fourth absence, one percent will be deducted for each absence (10% maximum deduction).

Excused absences: students submit a valid proof (medical certificate, court document) in soft copy format.
