Course Description

This course introduces Chinese painting in a chronological order, from the Six Dynasties down to the twentieth century, giving equal attention to technique, stylistic analysis, and interpretation in historical and cultural context. Through lectures and in-class discussions, this course aims to develop students' ability to read and analyze the visual languages found in different genres of Chinese painting, and their ability to react critically to artworks and to make reasoned evaluations based on their understanding and appreciation of different pictorial traditions in China. As a Chinese Communication course, students' speaking, reading and writing abilities are assessed through class participation, essay writing and oral presentations.

Intended Learning Outcome

After taking this course, the students will

- 1 have a basic understanding of the trends, styles and evolution of Chinese painting
- 2 be able to apply the taught concepts and visual analysis to their appreciation of traditional Chinese painting as well as contemporary art works
- 3 be able to review and report on an exhibition of art works in an informed manner
