

Division of Humanities
Tentative Course Syllabus

Course Code: HUMA 1102
Course Title: Enjoyment of Classical Music
Course Offered in: Spring 2024
Course Instructor: Dr. Isaac Droscha

Course Description: From the power and beauty of the orchestra to masterpieces of the church and concert hall, students will gain an in-depth appreciation for the history and fundamentals of Western classical music. The listening and analytical skills demonstrated will bring about a deeper understanding of music as an art form. Previous musical training, albeit helpful, is not required.

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs):

Upon completion of this course, students are expected to be able to:

1	Through a historical survey, develop a deeper appreciation of classical music
2	Through an analysis of artistic trends, describe the cultural and historical development of classical music
3	Through analysis of specific works, understand music theory fundamentals
4	Through the IC report requirement, critique live music performances
5	Apply analytical skills from this course to other disciplines

Course Outline:

1	Course overview
2	Medieval music, and fundamentals of music (such as notation and rhythm)
3	Renaissance music, and concepts such as counterpoint and harmony
4	Baroque music, and concepts such as key signatures and scales
