Course Description

The course gives students knowledge of the development of oil painting in China from its beginning to the present. Focusing on the history of China in the 20th and 21st century, the course explores the social, cultural and political circumstances that favoured, oppressed and directed the path of the development of Chinese oil painting in different periods of time.

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs)

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- ILO1. Examine the social and political circumstances for the rapid growth of oil painting from late Qing Dynasty to the founding of the PRC in 1949.
- ILO2. Analyse the relationship between the stylistic characteristics of Chinese oil painting and Communist ideologies between 1949 and 1979.
- ILO3. Describe and discuss how Chinese avant-garde was born in the 1980s and the various art theories of the time.
- ILO4. Evaluate the changes in the art circle after 1989 and the impact of globalization on contemporary Chinese oil painting.

Medium of Instruction

The course is taught in English completely. No Chinese materials will be used as reference. All quiz and exam questions must be answered in English.

Museum Visit

One or more museum visits will be arranged. Participation is highly recommended and voluntary.
