

Course Syllabus Fall 2024

HUMA2101

Enjoyment of Western Opera

INSTRUCTOR: Professor Isaac Droscha OFFICE: Shaw Auditorium Rm. 217

PHONE: 23587768 EMAIL: droscha@ust.hk

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course aims to make opera more enjoyable and understandable. This survey course will examine the development of Western opera and selected Western operas with their related literary texts. By watching and analyzing opera, the students will learn to understand the relationship between music, literature, drama, and culture. Prior knowledge or experience of Western opera or classical music is not required.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to

- describe the development of Western opera
- understand the interrelationship between music, literature, drama and culture
- understand the elements of exoticism in western opera
- analyze the structure of scenes
- critique production quality
- coordinate team activities
- give and take direction and constructive criticism \
- communicate orally applicable to presentation
- express their own talent and creativity

COURSE MATERIALS

Course materials will be available on CANVAS

- YouTube has MANY wonderful excerpts and complete performances of opera, and this website will be used extensively (<http://www.youtube.com>(Links to an external site.)(Links to an external site.)).
- The Metropolitan Opera offers online viewing of their operas. There is a free trial and monthly rate available. The Library currently provides a database subscription which we will use for viewing.

OPERA VIEWING AND REVIEW:

This term you have the chance to watch a live or recorded opera. After you attend the event, you must submit a short response about your experience.

ATTENDANCE:

Attendance will be taken every class. You may miss two classes without penalty, but starting from you third absence, one percent will be deducted for each absence (10% maximum deduction).

EXAMS:

Midterm date: see canvas calendar

ONLINE QUIZZES:

Five online, multiple-choice quizzes are designed to help you prepare for the exams. They are based on the lecture sides, the operas, and the reading. For due dates, see the canvas calendar.

DISCUSSION POSTS:

You be asked to periodically post your opinion about the productions, the singing, the staging, etc. of the operas throughout the term. These are graded on completion and on the validity of your post.

Components	Percentage	Nature of Assessments
Exam	25%	MC, fill-in the blank, essay
Mid-term	20%	MC, fill in the blank, essay
Opera Review	5%	Individual
Group Project	20%	Teacher assessment
Discussion posts	10%	Teacher assessment
Attendance	10%	Individual
5 Online Quizzes	10%	Individual (MC and some fill in the blank)

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

If you are being dishonest in the course, the penalty is an F for the COURSE.

Cheating: a) If you look at other students' papers or materials (ex. notes) during exam or test.

1. b) If you claim credit for other students' work in group projects.

Plagiarism: If you copy sections from a source without referencing it.

“If you are discovered cheating, however minor the offence, the course grade will appear on your record with an X, to show that the grade resulted from cheating. This X grade stays with your record until graduation. If you cheat again and "earn" another X grade, you will be dismissed from the University. In serious cases, your department may ask the Student Disciplinary Committee to look at the case. The Student Disciplinary Committee can require you to do campus community service; take away your eligibility for a degree with honors, or scholarships and prizes; suspend you from the University, or simply dismiss you right away.”

OPERAS TO BE STUDIED FROM MAY BE SELECTED FROM THE FOLLOWING:

La Favola d’Orfeo

Giulio Cesare

Castor et Pollux

The Enchanted Island

Le Nozze di Figaro

Don Giovanni

Il barbiere di Siviglia

La Cenerentolla

Les Huguenots

Rigoletto

La Traviata

Otello

Der Ring des Nibelungen

Carmen

Werther

Pagliacci

Cavalleria Rusticana

La Boheme

Turandot

Salome

Wozzeck

Nixon in China

Einstein on the Beach

The Dream of the Red Chamber